TALK OF THE TOWN

Cars washed and polished for $1.50 at Oliver's Battery Station.—adv.

H. J. M. Jones, W. G. Reynolds and John A. Cross left this morning for St. Bernard Club, P. Q., on an outing trip.

Paul Roghini returned yesterday from New York City, where he has been for the last two weeks on a vacation.

I will run a car to Sherbrooke fair Aug. 30 and return afternoon of Aug. 31. Call 315-W after 6 p. m. for reservations.—adv.

G. A. Wilkinson of South Main street left yesterday afternoon for Newport, where he will spend the week end demonstrating a new tractor.

Mrs. Alexander Duncan and daughter, Elizabeth, of Belmont avenue are spending two weeks on the Massachusetts coast as the guests of friends.

A. F. McCarthy of Mobile, Ala., was a recent visitor in town, coming through Boston, Keene and other points on an extended touring trip.

Miss Elizabeth Bell and Miss Ellen Talbot, teachers in the high school in Wallingford, Conn., are visiting relatives on Liberty street for a short time.

Lawrence Wilcox of Franklin street has returned from Albany, N. Y., where he went about a week ago, and will resume duties in the Barre fire department Monday.

Joseph G. Calcegni of Humbert street, who has been spending the summer with his family at Highgate Springs, returned to Barre yesterday for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bugbee of Albany, N. Y., arrived in town Thursday by auto and are passing the week with friends in the city. Mrs. Bugbee was formerly of Montpelier.

A special meeting of the L. A. A. O. H. will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in Worthen hall, to elect delegates to the state convention to be held at Rutland Sept. 1.

Alexander Duncan of the North Barre Granite Co. plans to leave Barre Monday morning on an extended business trip, covering several weeks, through the south and west.

We carry in stock a good line of the Elias Howe violin, guitar, mandolin and "cello strings." Bailey's Music Rooms, 20 Pearl street, just a few steps from the Magnet theatre.—adv.

At Bailey's Music Rooms, 20 Pearl street, one second-hand upright piano for $95. This piano is a Haines Brothers cabinet grand, a good instrument for the home or camp. Call and look this over.—adv.

Come hear a real treat at the Methodist church, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The Wells Concert company will give a program of music and readings. Adults 35c, children under 10 years, 20c.—adv.

Ernest Houde completes duties today as organist at the Park theatre and leaves for Toronto, Ont. His place is to be taken by Jack Henderson of Boston, who played the organ for a while at the opening of the theatre. Mr. Henderson is an experienced Wurlitzer soloist.

The price paid by Mr. Levin and Mr. Yett for real estate on North Main street was misstated in yesterday's issue of The Times. Instead of $3,000, it should have read $38,000. Mr. Levin and Mr. Yett are the sole owners of the Union Clothing Co. and the Union Dry Goods Co.

News has recently been received in Barre of the serious illness of Edward Ennis in Berkeham, N. H. It will be remembered that he left Barre in the early part of the summer to conduct a barber shop there. At the last writing he was reported as being on a fair way to recovery.

Harold H. Ford, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ford of Burlington, formerly of Barre, died Thursday after a short illness, and the funeral was held in that city yesterday afternoon. Besides his parents, he leaves two sisters, Beatrice and Gladys, both of Burlington.

B. T. Hall, who was on a round-trip through Old Orchard and Portland, to Nashua, N. H., is a forced visitor in town and will probably remain here three or four days as a result of his auto breaking down between South Barre and Williamstown. While coming this way his motor went wrong and he had to be brought to this city.

Local baseball fans looking for some of their favorite amusement will be likely to find considerable of it at the Lincoln campus this afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, when the Phelps Co. team of Barre lines up against the East Brookfield aggregation. They should carry along some loose change as the hat will be passed.

The 14th birthday of Miss Ada Campagnari of Brook street was celebrated Thursday when about fifteen of her friends took her out into the open country and held an all-day picnic in her honor. The party went out at about 9 o'clock and they were out till nearly 6 o'clock. Many games were played, and the guest of honor was presented a large number of gifts.

It was all arranged. It was to be the biggest auto race that Barre has ever seen. They were to speed out into the country twenty miles—these two contestants in the purse was said to have been enormous, the spirit of rivalry intense. People of all ages anticipated. Even the automobiles that were to run the race anticipated, it would seem. At the hour when, among polite gentry, it was whispered, the secret race was to begin, many people gathered to witness it—as many as a hundred. Those who did not come talked of it as they wondered, and wondered as they talked. A big race, they would say, and very decisive. Business men at committees thought and talked of it; kind-hearted housewives with doubtful smiles showing their false teeth talked of it; it was the talk of the town. And then it didn't come off. Fortunately for the hundreds of other people who might have been on the road between Barre and North Randolph.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Once again Williamstown has responded to the call. When the appeal was made for six layettes and 25 garments as their part of the Red Cross allotment, the community went to work. With a start-off party at the home of Mrs. L. D. Gale, where the layettes were commenced, to the finish of the bags by the high school girls, all have been interested and wanted to help. It has been a community work and a strong community feeling has permeated throughout. The quota has been turned in to the Barre branch, Williamstown being the first town in the organization to fill its quota and turn in to the Barre headquarters.

SOUTH BARRE
